Preface

|Literature| Language Arts is a bundle of creative and engaging educational content. Learners are exposed to diverse genres and language features. Purposively curated to align with the core standards of Reading, Writing, Speaking, and Listening, learners are progressively guided towards the acquisition of essential language skill sets.

Warm up sections at the beginning of each unit set the context for the lesson themes. These cover a variety of activities such as dialog, mind maps, picture analysis, peer discussion, and vocabulary drills.

Excerpts from famous literature have been adapted for reading and discussion. Text types include novels, speeches, poetry and journals. Brief questions are incorporated within some text as Let's Ponder sections for learners to reflect and opine on the discourse.

Notes on specific aspects of language are embedded within the units to guide learners through the various exercises. These also serve as recapitulation of important language components.

Exercises are designed to scaffold learning of distinct language skills such as grammar and vocabulary. These have been integrated to allow for practice and assessment. The exercises culminate in an Assignment at the end of each unit to demonstrate comprehension and grasp of the key lesson outcomes.
